BYLAWS OF THE BOONE AREA LIBRARY

Preamble
The Boone Area Library Bylaws as amended having been found to need amplification; the following revision is enacted in place thereof. This revision shall have no retroactive effect, and is not understood as nullifying any Board action or election of officers, which have taken place prior to the effective date of the following rules and regulations.

Article One
Section 1. NAME. This organization which is known as the Boone Area Library is incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as the Boone Area Library, Inc., and exists by virtue of the Library Code of 1961, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Education, State Library of Pennsylvania, Section 102.

Definition:
"(1) Local Library. Any free, public nonsectarian library, whether established and maintained by a municipality or by a private association, corporation or group, which serves the information, educational and recreational needs of all the residents of the area for which its governing body is responsible, by providing free access (including free lending and reference services) to an organized and currently useful collection of printed items and other materials and to the services of a staff trained to recognize and provide for these needs."

Section 2. OFFICE. The principal office for the transaction of business for the Boone Area Library, Inc. (herein after referred to as the Library) is 129 N. Mill St., Birdsboro, Berks County, Pennsylvania - 19508. The Library may also have offices at such other places as the Board of Trustees may from time to time appoint or the activities of the Library may require.

Article Two
Section 1. SEAL. The Corporate Seal shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation, the year of its organization and the words "Corporate Seal, Pennsylvania."

Section 2. RECORDS. The Library shall keep a corporate minute book, which shall contain, at a minimum, the following:
- The duly executed copy of the Articles of Incorporation.
- The original bylaws, including all amendments thereto.
- The Library shall also keep a record of the proceedings of each meeting of the Board of Trustees.
d. The Library shall also keep appropriate, complete, and accurate books or records of account.
e. The records provided for herein shall be kept at the Library's principal place of business, wherever situated.
f. All items required by the article to be maintained shall be open for inspection or examination by any member of the public at all reasonable times and upon reasonable notice, for any reasonable purpose related to the interest of the Library.

Article Three

Section 1. MISSION STATEMENT. The Boone Area Library’s mission is to provide a wide variety of materials and events, which reflect the culture of our community and serve to entertain, educate and inspire life-long learning relevant to all.

Vision: A community dedicated to enriching the lives of all by bringing people, information and ideas together.

The Boone Area Library is committed to:
1. Upholding the principle of free speech and to opposing the restriction or suppression of ideas, information or artistic expression.
2. Serving all people, regardless of age, race, religion, gender or economic status.
3. Providing free basic services to all and making prudent decisions about those services.
4. Being fully accountable for all funds received.
5. Promoting a life long love of learning.
6. Striving to assure public access to information and materials that educate, enrich, enlighten and entertain.

Section 2. PURPOSE. The Library, as a member of the Berks County Public System and participant in interlibrary Loan, is part of the educational and cultural life of the Boone Community. The Library shall be operated exclusively for those purposes allowed an exempt organization under Section 501 © (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may be hereinafter amended. The Library is not organized for pecuniary profit, and no part of its net earnings shall inure to the benefit of any member, Trustee or individual. In the event of liquidation or dissolution of the Library, whether voluntary or involuntary, the Library shall adhere to the laws of the Commonwealth regarding the dissolution of the non-profit organization, and its assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section © (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
ARTICLE FOUR

Section 1. TRUSTEES. Business and affairs of the Library shall be managed by a Board of Trustees (hereinafter referred to as the Board), no less than seven and no more than nine in number. Trustees shall be eighteen years or older and residents of Berks County.

Section 2. APPOINTMENT. The sponsoring municipalities shall appoint trustees in accordance with Section 411 of the Pennsylvania Library Code. The Board should submit its suggested names to the municipalities by November 1st, so the municipalities have ample time to make appointments before the end of the year and a full Board can meet for reorganization in January. Suggestions for filling midterm vacancies should also be made as promptly as possible.

Section 3. TERMS. The term of office of all Trustees shall be for three years. The terms of one third (or as near to one third as may be) the number of Trustees shall begin each year as of January 1st. A person appointed to fill a vacancy, which occurred mid-term, will serve the balance of the term, not three full years. Trustees shall serve until their successors have been appointed. Trustees will serve no more than two successive terms. After a year off the Board, the person may be appointed again. A person filling an unexpired term with less than one and a half years remaining may be appointed to two successive full terms.

Section 4. DUTIES OF TRUSTEES.

a) To employ a competent and qualified Librarian.

b) To adopt written policies to govern the operation and program of the Library.

c) To assist in the preparation of the annual budgets and approve the final document.

Article Twelve

INDEMNIFICATION OF TRUSTEES AND OFFICERS, AND LIMITATION OF TRUSTEE'S PERSONAL LIABILITY

Section 1. PERSONAL LIABILITY OF TRUSTEES. The Library shall indemnify to The full extent required by law, and may indemnify or agree to indemnify to the full extent permitted by law, any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or contemplated action, suit, or proceeding whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of that person's being or having been a Trustee, officer, employee, or agent of the Library or any other enterprise at the request of the Library. Not withstanding the foregoing, the Library has no obligation to purchase insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a trustee, officer, employee, or agent of the Library against any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such. The Library at the sole discretion of the Board may provide such insurance.

Section 2. LIMITATION OF TRUSTEE'S PERSONAL LIABILITY. No Trustees shall be personally liable for monetary damages as such for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, unless:

a) The Trustee has breached or failed to perform the duties of his or
b) her office relating to the standard of care and justifiable reliance;
c) The breach or failure to perform constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness. Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to 1) the responsibility of a Trustee pursuant to any criminal statutes; or 2) the liability of a Trustee for the payment of taxes pursuant to local, state or federal law.

Section 3. STANDARDS OF CARE FOR THE TRUSTEES AND JUSTIFIABLE RELIANCE BY TRUSTEES.
The Trustee shall stand in a fiduciary relationship to the Library and shall perform his or her duties as a member of any committee of the Board upon which he or she may serve, in good faith, in a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interest of the Library, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, skill and diligence, as a person of ordinary prudence would use under similar circumstances. In performing his or her duties, a Trustee shall be entitled to rely in good faith on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by any of the following:

a) One or more officers or employees of the Library show the Trustee reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matter presented.

b) Counsel public accountants or other persons as to matters, which the Trustee reasonably believes to be within the professional or expert competence of such person.

c) A committee of the Board, upon which he or she does not serve, duly designated in accordance with law, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the Trustee reasonably believes to merit confidence.

A Trustee shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if he or she has knowledge concerning the matters in question that would cause his or her reliance to be unwarranted. In discharging the duties of their respective positions, the Board, committees of the Board and individual Trustees may, in considering the best interest of the Library, consider the effects of any action upon employees, upon suppliers and patrons of Library, and upon communities in which the Library is located, and other pertinent factors. The consideration of those factors shall not constitute a violation of the foregoing duties of the Trustees as set forth herein. Absent a breach of fiduciary duty, lack of good faith or self-dealing, action taken as a Trustee or any failure to take any action shall be presumed to be in the best interest of the Library.
