

Work in front of the Library

The parking spaces in front of the library will be closed off through 4/9. UGI will continue their work with the gas lines. Please expect delays. You can visit the library by taking Henningsville Road to Home Road and snaking through the Lutheran Home Employee Parking lot. You can park in the employee lot or the spaces that are between the Old Main building and the Henry Auditorium.

