

Bernville Library September News

On September 20 from 7–8pm, Paul and Kathleen Miller will be presenting a talk on their book “Blue Marsh and the Pleasant Valley–One Last Look.” This book is full of history of the Bernville Area. The book will be available for purchase at the presentation.

Story Time Around the World

Miss Debe will start her new story time on Monday September 17 at 11:15am.

She will explore different modes of transportation on getting to different countries and the customs, foods, languages and more for each country. They will make passports and document each country as they visit it. COME join her on this wonderful adventure.

To all the volunteers, vendors, companies, and bidders who made Community Day a success. We appreciate your support.

We ended our Summer Quest "campout" with a pool

Party for those who completed all the badges. We appreciate all the adults who encouraged and helped the kids with their badges. We are looking forward to next year already.

Wi-Fi Hotspots

We have them, please check with the library about availability and how to obtain one.

We held a second beginner flower arranging class and are looking forward to doing more in addition to more advanced classes. Check the libraries Facebook page and website for upcoming events.

Barbara Orkis started at the library as a volunteer in Jan. 2012 after retiring from Avis Rent A Car at the Reading Airport. That is where she met her husband, an airline pilot and was fortunate to travel all around the world. In April 2012, she became a paid employee of the library. She was eager to start as she enjoys working with the public and being surrounded by books. She is the one that can find anything through "Interlibrary loans." Barb enjoys gardening, spending time with her cats and dog and watching BBC mysteries that are available at the library.
